

An act to authorise Mary E. M'Donough, of Kent county, to remove negro Jane into this state.

And, An act for the benefit of Samuel Queen, a free man of colour, of Anne-Arundel county; severally endorsed, "will not pass."

And a resolution for appropriating to the Church Hill Academy one fourth part of the donation granted to the Centreville Academy, in Queen Anne's county, endorsed, "dissented from."

The clerk of the senate also communicated the following message; which was read, viz.

By the Senate, March 10th, 1827.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message of this day, proposing to appoint a joint committee, with instructions to request the governor to attend in the senate chamber, on Monday next, at four o'clock P. M. to sign the laws, according to the constitution and form of government. We concur with you in the proposition, and have appointed Messrs. Forrest and Johnson, a committee on the part of the senate for that purpose.

By order,

Wm. Kilty, Clerk.

The bill reported by Mr. Peach, entitled, An act for the relief of Basil Bowling of Prince George's county, was read the second time and considered.

On motion by Mr. Peach, the first section was amended by striking out "and so forth," in the fifth line of the section. The bill so amended, was then passed and sent to the senate for concurrence.

Mr. Dennis reported a bill, entitled, An act to authorise and empower William Wailes, of Somerset county, to appeal from the decision of the levy court of said county, relative to a certain road; which was read the first, and by a special order the second time, passed, and sent to the senate for concurrence.

In conformity with the agreement of the house on Thursday evening last, the bill, entitled, An act to authorise Eleakim Littell to institute, carry on, and draw a lottery, the prizes in which shall consist of works in literature and science, was then taken up for reconsideration, and again read. The bill was passed and sent to the senate for concurrence.

The bill, entitled, An act to regulate the amount of capital on which the annual tax shall be paid by the banks therein mentioned, reported by the committee on ways and means, to whom it had been recommitted, was then taken up and again read.

When on motion by Mr. Barnes, the following amendment, as an additional section, to come in at the end of the bill, was twice read and adopted, viz.

"Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of